HONORING MAX MAROLT

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a solemn heart that I rise before this body of Congress today to recognize the life and passing of a skiing icon. Max Marolt was a world-class skier and prominent political figure in his hometown of Aspen, Colorado. I am honored to rise today to highlight Max's accomplishments and his service to the Aspen community.

Max was born in Aspen in 1936, one of three sons that would soon become prominent figures in the skiing community. Max excelled as a member of the Aspen junior racing team, leading it to a third place finish at the National Junior Meet in 1951. After joining the Denver University Ski Team, he earned a place on the U.S. Ski Team in 1954. Several years later, Max's skills and determination led to an invitation to the 1960 Olympic Winter Games. Max's participation in the Olympic games inspired local skiers throughout the area to pursue their grandest dreams, including his brother Bill, who competed in the Olympics in 1964.

Although Max's intrepid spirit led him on many adventures around the world, he continued to call Aspen his home. Max worked as a sales representative for several ski equipment manufacturers while raising his four children and cultivating their respective skiing careers. His son noted that Max dedicated the last 30 years of his life to his family and community. Max's service included a stint on the Aspen City Council in 1995 and a campaign for mayor in 1997.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand before this body of Congress today to pay tribute to Max Marolt for his devotion to his family, dedication to his community, and numerous athletic achievements. Citizens like Max provide the spirit and strength of character that made this nation great. While he will be dearly missed, we can all take solace in the knowledge that Max's spirit lives on through those whom he has touched.

CONGRATULATIONS TO TREE OF LIFE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH IN GARY, IN

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. VISCLOSKY. It is with great honor and enthusiasm that I congratulate the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church in Gary, Indiana, as they celebrate their 24th anniversary. During the month of September, Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church will be celebrating their anniversary on three different occasions. The celebration will kick off on September 6 with a balloon release and a barbeque, followed by a banquet on September 12, and a culmination of the anniversary celebration on September 21.

The vision of Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church began on July 23, 1979 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ervin, along with Reverend Cato Brooks and many others. In August of 1979, the church was organized as the Tree of Life Mission and worship began with Reverend James Barnett, Jr., and Greater Harvest Missionary Baptist Church. Then in September of 1979, the Tree of Life Mission became the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church and incorporated a council of various religious ministers from other local churches. When the doors opened to the new church, 28 parishioners came together in worship service, and shortly after Rev. Brooks was named Pastor.

Tree of Life quickly grew in numbers and began to reach out to the community by constructing an alcohol and drug addiction program through the Alcohol Center at St. Mary's Mercy Hospital. The church and Rev. Brooks were strong initiators for the New Beginning AA program in the community as well as the West 11th Avenue AA program. In June of 1984, Rev. Brooks appointed Rev. Hunter Griffin, III as the church's Jail and Outreach Minister, and he reached out to over 650 inmates through prayer services at the Lake County Jail in Crown Point, Indiana.

On February 5, 1991, the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church received high commendation from the City of Gary for all of its efforts to serve, educate, and support the local community. In July of 1991, the Southern Baptist State Convention Home Mission Board awarded the Tree of Life with a certificate of outstanding performance in Christian Service.
